Summary of Discussion	President Gurrola and ASWN Senators address concerns that people have regarding pricing for students and community members for the CDC. The CDC, Stated by Andrea Doran talks about how the Child Development Center that is self sustained and does not receive any revenue from the institute and Students have priority when they are in the list and faculty and staff are second and community members are third. The CDC does not have enough room to take in every child and that is why there such a long waiting list. 98% of the CDC's revenue goes to the staff. They are also NAC accredited. They also have fundraisers to try and get new items for the children.
